HaPoC 2019

5th International Conference on the History and Philosophy of Computing

28 and 29 October 2019, 9:00-17:30

30 October 2019, 9:00-12:30

Campus S. Agostino, Chiostro Maggiore, Aula 1

HaPoC aims to bring together researchers exploring the various aspects of computation: historians, philosophers, computer scientists, sociologists, anthropologists, designers, manufacturers, practitioners, artists, logicians, mathematicians, each with their own experience and expertise, all part of a society impacted by computation, and all necessary to the creation of a better discourse.

Keynote speakers: Deborah G. Johnson (University of Virginia), Gerardo Con Diaz (University of California, Davis)

Chairs: Alfredo Paternoster and Mario Verdicchio

In collaboration with the Division of History of Science and Technology (DHST) and the Division of Logic, Methodology and Philosophy of Science and Technology (DLMPST) of the International Union of History and Philosophy of Science and Technology
